The more small business owners I meet, the more I think they need to have a strategy and someone to help them who understands and has done this before. That's why I continue to refer people to the Idaho SBDC and my consultant.

- Sabrina Sherwood, Idaho Barkery, Boise

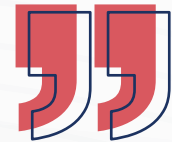

With [the Idaho SBDC's] guidance, we've built a talented executive team, diversified and expanded our services and markets served, tapped into each team member's strengths, and more.

- Janeale Dean, Desert Creative Group, Twin Falls

I hadn't imagined myself running a business as it seemed daunting, but now, I couldn't think of it any other way. My advice to other entrepreneurs is to get an SBDC coach; they will make you think about your business in a new way and provide valuable advice and direction.
